

Clare Burgum

A bit about me

My "why" is to inspire others to do what inspires them so that we all thrive!

I help leaders and leadership teams to realise their strengths and to develop their collective leadership capability. I've acquired a wealth of expertise and experience coaching individuals AND teams through change and transition. I pride myself on fostering change that sticks and facilitating transformation where transformation is needed.

My initial corporate career (IBM) and the last 15 years as a consultant and coach have seen me:

- > Coaching senior, global teams to High Performance Collaboration
- > Executive coaching senior leaders to support personal development and transformation
- > Leading the people management, professional development, resource deployment and recruitment for a Consulting and Services Practice
- > Enabling successful career transitions for many individuals from a range of industries and roles
- > Coaching international MBAs
- > Growing the coaching capability of management teams through "Coaching for Leaders" programmes

I'm based in Warwickshire, with my husband and two teenage sons. "Health and wellbeing" is at the top of my list of core values and I love swimming, running and cycling! My proudest sporting achievements include: Ironman Austria (2013); "Dart 10k" (river swim - 2015); Ironman Barcelona (2016) and Paris Marathon (2017).

Colleague view ↓

"Clare is an inspiration and example for great personal leadership. Her questions are thought provoking and get to the crux of the issue. Clare is very comfortable at holding the tension between what is and what could be, which supports her clients to achieve breakthroughs and transformation."
