A bit about me

Working globally at Leading Edge I have had a great opportunity to support individuals and teams on their development journeys, through individual and team development and coaching. I take great pride in seeing the growth and learning that stretches them to their full potential.

I am passionate about engagement - it really does drive business results! I had the great honour of receiving the 'Great Place to Work' from Gallop at B&Q whilst I was Director of HR (we actually won the award 5 times!)

What I really enjoy about being a Team Coach is working with different businesses and sectors including, Retail, Manufacturing, finance, sales, sport and meeting great teams and individuals. Working Globally also gives me a huge opportunity to work with amazing different cultures and visit some fabulous places!

Very few times in my career have I come across Leaders who actually fully understand Leadership and can actively drive business agenda's forward at pace whilst truly engaging their team in the inevitable challenges of work. Janine success is driven through both her strong value base and a belief that true success is not measured through just the results but through developing people to find their potential and grow. She is the most honest individual I know but this is always exercised by getting people to take accountability and reflect on how things could improve in a constructive way! Her ability to just ask the right question at the right time helps her get to the bottom of issues whilst reinforcing that great questions are an essential tool in the leadership box which often many fail to recognise. Janine's ability to actively listen and connect with people in a supportive way always ensures the team know she cares about them which ultimately means they give back 100% when working for her!

My advice is to take time to Listen to what she has to say and act on the advice. I guarantee you'll be a better leader for doing so!
