

Personal credentials →

-  Extended Disc practitioner
-  McQuaig Psychometric trainer
-  Diploma of Management and Hospitality
-  Workplace Training and Assessment Qual (CIPD equivalent)

A bit about me

Scott Alford

As a native Australian I started in hospitality, dabbled in retail, kicked goals in sales but found my passion in educating and empowering others. So I have a breadth of experience at senior leadership levels in a wide range of sectors. I am fortunate that I have worked in almost every industry and I always feel connected when I work with people, as I learn and talk their language.

Quotes →

"Be the change you want to see in the world"; Mahatma Ghandi
 'What's true for one is true for many'

Colleague view →

Scott has a fun outgoing, charismatic personality who is able to read his audience. He has a balanced, yet agile approach and is naturally likeable enabling him to be warm and still hold people to account. Scott has an infectious energy and is a great asset to the team.

I love it when people who I work with absorb the content and really own their own outcomes. My main focus is to ensure that results are achieved through the experiences and reflections they encounter in my sessions.

My main attributes are my positive mental attitude, a healthy self-confidence and a belief that anybody can achieve what they want to.

Whilst I may look like a surfer I am saving learning to surf until my kids are old enough to learn with.

Interests →

- Sport including Playing and Coaching AFL, Basketball, Gaelic Football and Rugby
- Practicing Meditation and Mindfulness
- Family time Enjoying the Sun (why am I in the UK?) Winning Jousting Tournaments
- Trying everything at least once

Previous clients include:

-  MARS
-  Toyota
-  Johnson Controls
-  Mercedes
-  Veolia
-  SME's
-  Cummins
-  ANZ
-  NAB
-  Ernst and Young
-  Telstra
-  National Audit Office
-  Levi's
-  England Rugby
-  Wickes
-  eBay

Continents Worked in →

-  Australia
-  Europe
-  North America
-  Asia
-  Middle East